World Risk and Insurance Economics Congress (WRIEC) 2015

August 2-6, 2015

Munich, Germany

The 3rd World Risk and Insurance Economics Congress will take place in Munich, Germany, on August 2-6, 2015. The conference will be organized by the European Group of Risk and Insurance Economists and co-organized by the American Risk and Insurance Association, the Asia Pacific Risk Insurance Association and The Geneva Association. It will be hosted by the Munich Risk and Insurance Center at LMU Munich.

The World Congress features panel sessions on climate change, asset management, big data, and risk management and insurance research. Confirmed keynote speakers include Nikolaus von Bomhard and Mohamed El-Erian. On the occasion of the congress the 27th Geneva Risk Economics Lecture will be delivered by Jean-Charles Rochet.

You are encouraged to submit a proposal to present research findings. Papers on any risk or insurance related topic are welcome. Specific subject areas include, but are not limited to, insurance economics, risk management, insurance law or regulation, insurance company operations, corporate governance, public policy, health care, international issues, retirement, or employee benefits.

Executive summaries (not exceeding three pages) that focus on the purpose, expected results, and importance of the research may be submitted. Completed papers are preferred. Proposals from doctoral students are encouraged.

The deadline for submission is February 2nd, 2015. This deadline will not be extended.

Proposals must be submitted electronically on the WRIEC website at www.wriec.net in Acrobat (.pdf) or Word (.docx) format. The submission link will be available no later than January 5th, 2015. Please remove all author information from your paper (double-blind review process).

Papers already accepted for publication should not be submitted. Authors will be notified by e-mail of the program committee's decision regarding their paper by mid-April 2015. In order to stay on the program, at least one author must register for the meeting no later than June 1st.

Questions concerning the program can be directed to the Program Chair Alexander Mürmann, Vienna University of Economics and Business (alexander.muermann@wu.ac.at).
